

NEW MARION EMPLOYEES

SCOTT WILSON

Marion is proud to announce the new head of our Emergency Response department, Scott Wilson. Scott brings a wealth of knowledge to our Emergency Response department including extensive rail road experience.

His previous positions included responsibilities for business development, proposal preparation, and cost estimating. Scott has managed remediation projects on numerous superfund sites. He is well equipped to meet the regulatory challenges inherent in today's projects.

With an Environmental Engineering degree, more than 24 years environmental experience, and his management acumen, Marion feels extremely fortunate to be able to add Scott to our team.

Marion Environmental Inc. is one of the leading providers of environmental consulting, remediation, and emergency response in the southeast. Our goal is to provide cost effective solutions to environmental problems.

Making our standard, industry standard.

New Equipment

Aqua Treat made some improvements this month, replacing two small tanks in the tank farm with a 35,000 gallon stainless steel tank. The tank farm is one of several areas where industrial wastewater is treated.

Marion also added another Peterbilt tractor to its fleet. This tractor has a new wet kit system (for hydraulic work) and a new vac system for tanker loading and unloading.

Safety Tip

Most industries have an Emergency Preparedness Plan in place. However, it isn't enough to have the plan on file. It is also required that you practice the plan through mock disaster drills. Marion recommends a drill once a year.

Recent/Upcoming Events

- Marion has several representatives and a booth participating in the 2013 Railroad Environmental Conference in Urbana, IL.
- Marion is the primary sponsor and exhibitor at the Chattanooga Regional Manufacturers Association Environmental Summit on November 20th.
- Marion held an event for employees and their families at the Knoxville Zoo on Saturday, October 12. It was a beautiful day to get together with coworkers and their families. The zoo was dressed up for fall with decorated pumpkins lining the walkways. Great weather and a bevy of adorable employee children made it a day to remember.

STEVE WRIGHT

It is impossible to meet anyone who dislikes Steve Wright. Steve is an experienced environmental consultant. With a degree in Business Management, he helps solve clients problems, whether it involves waste management, or environmental compliance. Either way, his career has been highly successful and with his 23 years of experience, Marion is fortunate to have him join our sales team.

Although he hails from Bristol, Virginia, this first year with Marion his territory is primarily Atlanta, and North Georgia.

Steve's many talents include Wii racing and singing in his church choir. Marion is proud to add Steve to our ranks.
